REPUBLIC HANDICAP AT UNION;
LUCAS MEMORIAL AT DELMAR.

Each Local Course Has Stake Offering for This Afternoon—Kenova Seems Best in The Republic Event While Charley Thompson Should Beat Light Opera in the Delmar Feature—Seven Races at County Track.

AT UNION PARK.

The Republic Handicap brings out the best field of the season at Union Park today. Eleven of the best horses at the track are entered. Front and Main and Shine, both bred by the same owner, are the only favorites. It is the best field seen at Union this year, and probably the best field seen at St. Louis in this season.

Looking at the race and knowing the horses intimately, the Republic picks Kenova to win at hand, providing that a competent rider rides her. She cannot win with Jockey Washburn up. With some fair boy on her, she probably will win. She is about right and would have beaten Lord Hermance easily with a good rider up last time they met, and she should win today, as she is taking off nine pounds on that race. She looks well and is a 100 mare any time she is right.

This looks like the right spot to cut her loose. She will be second if he gets a good ride. This is a good horse and at his best now. His last three races have been brilliant. He should have beaten M. P. Turpin last time they met. The distance today is just to a hair.

Aggressively should be third. She is good and fast and likes a route.

Chief race with Ebb and Tarper being her right up to Ebb. W. L. Gates has an undeniable chance, but like a muddy track bet. Still, he is a good old horse, no strong as he used to be, but he must never be overlooked. Since he has been in the class.

The Messenger is asked to do a great deal, but he is wearing the medals and must be given a good chance, especially as he has been in the class. He has a chance, but will go to easier game in the first event, where he should win. Tarper is at the Messenger's good friend, and he will clear him of the field, but there is a speed to go with him, and Amintore can beat him at the Messenger's good friend.

Reader is said to be a bit lame from poor playing, but is a good old and will have a chance, though even the worst of the weights. He is the classiest of the lot.

Lord Hermance looks best in the second. He is a horse of some class and his race yesterday was a mere "prop." Ora McKinney ran his last race was fine. McKinney ran last time out and should be third. Leach and Scarborough have outside chances.
